

A vertical stack of several books is shown against a dark green, textured background. The books have various colored spines, including shades of blue, orange, and red. The top book is the most prominent, with a light blue spine. The books are stacked horizontally, with their spines facing the viewer.

DEVOTE.

READ. Matthew 5:13-16

THINK. The New Life we get from Jesus is different than the life people normally lead. It's deeper, greater, truer, and brighter. When communities live like Jesus, it's winsome.

What about living like Jesus is distinctive, vivacious, enticing, or beneficial?

What makes Christians go from being life filled and distinctive to bland?

How does the nature of our New Life help you trust Jesus more?

PRAY. for your faith to show off Jesus.