

A vertical stack of several books is shown against a dark green, textured background. The books have various colored spines, including shades of blue, orange, and red. The top book is a thick, light-colored volume. The overall composition is simple and focused on the theme of reading and devotion.

DEVOTE.

READ. Matthew 5:31-37

THINK. Jesus isn't just against oaths, he is against using promises to mislead and manipulate people, because to him, treating people well is most important thing.

How can promises mislead people?

Why would God not want you to make promises on His name especially?

What good aspects of community do oaths and lies keep from growing?

PRAY. for God to help you like being honest.
