Sunday

Rest & Reflect:
Lord of all creation and recreation,
you are a Parent who gives good gifts.
Father, we ask for our daily bread;
that we can have enough and still a little more.
Spirit, we seek your guidance;
that we can live out your character in this world.
Jesus, we knock at the door of your kingdom;
let us enter and hold the door open for others.
Make us open-hearted and open-handed, so that your many blessings can flow through us to be a gift to others.

Monday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + Psalm 145:13–17
Think: What does God have that people need?
Pray: for something you need from Him.

Tuesday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + Genesis 41:46–57
Think: Why is it beneficial for Egypt to share or sell their surplus?
Pray: for people and nations and corporations to open their storehouses.

Wednesday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + 2 Samuel 12:15–23
Think: When people experience loss like David, what are God's gifts?
Pray: for someone you know or don't know in the middle of loss.

Thursday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + Romans 8:31–32
Think: How does God feel generous to you?
Pray: for something you need from God.

Friday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + 1 Timothy 2:1–2
Think: Why didn't these Christians get what they prayed for?
Pray: and talk with God about a frustration you have for a prayer that wasn't given.

Saturday

Read: Matthew 7:7–11 + 2 Corinthians 12:7–10
Think: What is God giving, and what is He not giving in this passage?
Pray: for the discernment to know what in your life is from Him and what is not.
