

October 25-31

Quietly Faithful

"Let A Little Be Enough"

Sun: Rest and Reflect with God.
Mon-Sat: Read, Think, and Pray through Scripture.
Prayer: Prayer is more than just talking to God. Enjoy being with Him this week.

Sunday

Rest & Reflect:
Our God who sees, nothing we have and nothing we want is hidden from you.
Lord, your judgment is fair, even when our world is not.
When we have little, you look for little in return; and when we have much, you expect much.
Let us see the places where you have blessed us with abundance, and make us generous to give abundantly.
Give us care for the areas where we are still wanting, that the best we can give will feel like enough.
We devote our lives to you; help us to serve your people and your way.

Monday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + Matthew 6:1–4
Think: Why do you like it when people praise your good work?
Pray: that you would feel fully affirmed in your good deeds.

Tuesday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + Luke 18:9–14
Think: Why would you rather look like the righteous person than let your difficulties be seen?
Pray: for a deeper comfort with both your successes and your flaws.

Wednesday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + Isaiah 1:11–15
Think: What do you think God really wants from you?
Pray: for the desire to serve Him more.

Thursday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + Daniel 4:30
Think: What would that king need to give for his gift to be more like the widows?
Pray: for the willingness to give abundantly out of your abundance.

Friday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + Leviticus 14:21–22
Think: What does it say about God that He set up a system for the impoverished to be able to give enough?
Pray: that we would set up systems to be fair during times of inequality.

Saturday

Read: Mark 12:41–44 + 2 Corinthians 8:12
Think: What criteria does God use to judge our actions?
Pray: and repent of the places where you have fallen short.
