

Sun: Rest and Reflect with God. Mon-Sat: Read, Think, and Pray through Scripture.

Prayer: Prayer is more than just talking to God. Enjoy being with Him this week.

Sun Rest & Reflect.

Jesus, broken and bled,
convicted and sentenced, you grant forgiveness.
Through breathing your last, you breathe new life in us.
At the foot of the cross, we gather as family.
And none of us deserve it one bit.
Cut the strings of guilt and shame we tie to your forgiveness.
Break the bonds of our old life, that we can live like you.
Remove the walls we place between siblings,
and welcome us all to you.
Lord, your feast is abundant.
Let your table be full.

Mon Read: Mark 14:17–21 + Exodus 12:14–20

Think: Should we prepare for communion this much?

Pray: for the habits that will help communion be most effective for you.

Tues Read: Mark 14:22–26 + Mark 2:13–17

Think: How do you feel about welcoming people to communion like Jesus welcomed people to dinner?

Pray: for someone who doesn't know Jesus to want more of Him.

Wed Read: Mark 14:17–21 + 1 Corinthians 11:17–34

Think: The problem was not individuals taking communion wrongly, but a majority shaping the practice of communion wickedly. True or false? Explain.

Pray: for us to celebrate communion in a way that makes Jesus proud.

Thurs Read: Mark 14:22–26 + Acts 2:42–47

Think: How should communion be more than a personal meal with God?

Pray: for people to be brought together through communion.

Fri Read: Mark 14:17–21 + Matthew 5:23–24

Think: What makes it dangerous to think you're right with God before you make yourself right with others?

Pray: through a circumstance where you and a fellow believer are still at odds.

Sat Read: Mark 14:22–26 + Romans 5:6–11

Think: Is communion for sinners or for the redeemed?

Pray: that someone could find a commitment to Christ through communion.
